OBITUARY

Loyd Rischer was the oldest child born to his parents, Mr. Joe Rischer and Mrs. Manervia Rischer in Freestone County, Texas.

He attended the public schools near his home and was very interested in his school work. He put in practice all that he had learned in his school. On his own, he learned to do carpenter work.

Loyd accepted Christ at an early age and united with the Rhode Island Methodist Church. He later united and became a very active member with Hillary Chapel Church which was located closer to his home. In his later years, Loyd Rischer united with Bradford Chapel AME Church. He always acknowledged his God at morning and at the close of day.

In 1939, Loyd was united in Holy Matrimony to Miss Ruby Etta Titus. To this union, four children were born. One son, King Loyd Rischer, preceded him in death.

In 1942, he entered the Navy.

The angel of Silence touched Loyd Rischer on December 10, 1985 in the Veterans Hospital of Dallas, Texas. He leaves to mourn a devoted wife, Ruby E. Rischer; one son, Joe W. Rischer of Dallas; two daughters, Annie Marie English of Dallas and Etta Maria Simpson of Fort Worth; eleven grandchildren, Patrice Renee Rischer, Sharonda Denice Rischer, Nanett LaShon Rischer, James F. English, Cynthia E. English, Alvin Lee English, Rodrick R. Rischer, Demetra Denice Rischer, Shaniqua Denice Rischer, Sedrick L. Simpson, and Eric T. Simpson; three brothers, Columbus Rischer of Streetman, Herman Rischer of Fort Worth, and Melvin Rischer of Los Angeles, California; two sisters, Mizellia Packer of Streetman, and Mary E. "WHEN I MUST LEAVE YOU"

*When I must leave you for a little while
Please do not grieve and shed wild tears
And hug your sorrow to you through the years
But start out bravely with a gallant smile.*

*And for my sake and in my name
Live on and do all things the same
Feed not your loneliness on empty days
But fill each waking hour in useful ways.*

*Reach out your hand in comfort and in cheer
And I in turn will comfort you and hold near
And never, never be afraid to die,
For I am waiting for you in the sky!*
