

TO THOSE I LOVE
AND THOSE WHO LOVE ME

*When I am gone, release me, let me go,
I have so many things to see and do.
You mustn't tie yourself to me with tears,
Be happy that we had so many years.
I gave you my love, you can only guess,
How much you gave to me in happiness.*

*I thank you for the love each have shown,
But now it's time I traveled on alone.
So grieve a while, if grieve you must,
Then let your grief be comforted by trust.
It's only for a while that we must part,
So bless the memories within your heart.
I won't be far away, for life goes on.
So if you need me, call and I will come.*

*Though you can't see or touch me, I'll be near,
And if you listen with your heart, you will hear.
All of my love around you soft and clear.
And then, when you must come this way alone,
I'll greet you with a smile, and Welcome Home.*

Life Reflections

Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you: not as the world giveth, give I unto you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid. Ye have heard how I said unto you, I go away, and come again unto you. If ye loved me, ye would rejoice, because I said, I go unto the Father: for my Father is greater than I.

John 14:27-28

Charles Henry Mack, Jr. son of the late Charles Henry Mack, Sr. and Ida Brown Mack was born April 11, 1941 on Wadmalaw Island, South Carolina. He was educated in Charleston County School District. As a young man he was a very talented craftsman. He moved to New York/New Jersey where he worked at Cruseable Steel until the Company closed. He later returned to Wadmalaw Island where he worked as a Self Employed Contractor until his health failed.

On May 27, 1972 he was united in holy matrimony to the former Delores Gadsden of Wadmalaw Island.

He united and fellowshiped at St James Bethel AME church where he was a former member of the Trustee Board and Steward Board. He was a member of the senior choir and male choir and at one time did the maintenance and landscaping for the church. He was instrumental in the building of the New St James Bethel AME Church.

On April 5th, 2013, Charles departed this earthly life and entered into eternal rest. Preceding him in death are his parents, brother, Frank Mack and sister, Geneva Mack.
