

MEMORIAL SERVICE

Of The Late

Mrs. Clara Mae Rose Whitfield

Sunday, August 9, 1981

2:00 P.M.

The Corncard Baptist Church

Batesville, Mississippi

Rev. John H. Snow Officiating

OBITUARY

Mrs. Clara M. Rose Whitfield was born May 16, 1896 in Memphis, Tennessee, to the union of the late Mr. and Mrs. Thomas White. She expired peacefully Wednesday, August 5, 1981 at her home. She became a baptized believer in Christ at an early age while attending the Corncard Baptist Church. She later joined Open Door Baptist Church in Memphis, Tennessee under the leadership of Rev. W. R. Grandberry. She was a member of the Eastern Star, Batesville, Mississippi.

She was loved by all who knew her. May she lie down to pleasant dreams, to awaken at the Gates of Heaven, where St. Peter escorted her in.

She is survived by two loving sons, Mr. Robert V. Rose, Sr.; Mr. Willie Rose of Chicago, Illinois; two daughters-in-law, Mrs. Ruthie B. Rose, Mrs. Kattie Mae Rose, Chicago, Illinois; one sister, Mrs. Hallie Martin; one brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Dearing White of Chicago, Illinois; twenty-four (24) grandchildren; twenty-five (25) great-grandchildren; one (1) great-great-grandchild; one brother-in-law and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Freeman Whitfield; and a host of other relatives, friends and well-wishers.

"I THINK SHE KNEW"

She went through life so eagerly.
I think perhaps she knew.
For all the charms she wanted to see
Her days may be too few.

So much she crowded into a day;
So proud of doing good
That soon she would be called away.
Maybe she understood.