

Tributes

"For Moma"
"Terri"

You brought us into this world
One boy and two girls,
You worked hard to give us everything
We never had to ask for anything
Now you are gone to a better place.
Your place in our lives no one can replace.
Now that you're gone, we have to be strong
Live by what you taught us
Our whole lives long.
Mom, we love you with all of our hearts
And right, now we are so torn apart
But your love and God will pull us through.
You will be missed, and Mom,
WE LOVE YOU!

-Diedra Cox

"For My Aunt"
"Gina"

There are so many things that you did
your dress, your hair, the glamorous way you lived,
You made our family complete.
But although you're gone, you, we could never delete.
God has a plan for you and me
This is His will, this is how it has to be
But for you, we have unconditional love
You're safe now in Heaven, with Him, up above.
Gina, We Love You, Forever

Your niece,
Diedra Cox

~OBITUARY~

On October 17, 1962 a bouncing baby girl was born in Seminole, TX. Her parents are Lola Jackson and James Batie. Terri's early education was in Hobbs, and Bloomfield, NM. Returning to Hobbs, Terri graduated from Hobbs High School.

Terri received Christ as her Lord and Savior at an early age, joining St. John Baptist Church in Hobbs, NM. Terri learned the importance of having a close relationship with the Lord.

After getting out of High School, Terri started working at Wal-mart. She worked a total of seventeen years at various Wal-mart stores. She united in holy matrimony to Holland Hunter, January 2, 1989, in San Angelo, TX. The Lord called Terri home on the morning of December 11, 2001 from her loving family. Terri was preceded in death by, her brother, Marlo.

Survivors include; Her husband, Holland Hunter, of Ft. Worth, TX; two daughters, Tabitha and Diedra and one son, Vernon, all of Tyler, TX; one granddaughter, Cherish Cox, of Tyler, TX; her father, James Batie, of Hobbs, NM; mother and step-father, Lola and Bennie Jackson, of Tyler, TX; sisters, Dina and Monica Draughan, both of Tyler, TX; brothers, Chris Batie, of Tyler, TX, Jeffrey Henderson, of Hobbs, NM; grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Porter Shoals, of Hobbs, NM; a host of other relatives and friends.
