

THANK YOU

Perhaps you sent a lovely card,
Or sat quietly in a chair;
Perhaps you sent a floral piece,
If so, We saw it there.
Perhaps you prayed a sincere prayer,
Or came to pay a call;
Perhaps you sang a cheerful song,
If so, We heard it all.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words,
As any friend could say,
Perhaps you were not there at all,
Just thought of us that day.
Perhaps you prepared a tasty dish,
Or maybe furnished a car;
Perhaps you rendered a service unseen,
Near at hand or from afar.
Whatever you did to console our hearts,
By word or deed or touch;
Whatever was the kindly part,
We thank you, oh so very much!

LIFE CREED

Mrs. Luepearl Peters, daughter of the late Mae Etta and Lemuel Henderson, was born March 14, 1883 in Freestone County, Texas. She attended public school in the Avant Community of Freestone County, Texas.

At an early age Mrs. Peters accepted Christ and joined the Avant African Methodist Church.

She was united in marriage to Edmond Peters who preceded her in death. This was a union to which ten children were born, three preceding her demise.

The Angel of Silence came for her May 7, 1978 in the Fairfield Memorial Hospital, Fairfield, Texas. Accepting the will of the Almighty God and patiently waiting for that inevitable day when they also must accept a visit from this same angel and to cherish her memory, she leaves: —

Three Daughters: Mesdames. Ida Lou Johnson and Mayetta Levels, both of Teague, Texas;
Mrs. Minnie Lee Golden, Fairfield, Texas;

Four Sons: Prince Peters, Fairfield, Texas;
Edward Peters, Teague, Texas;
Lawrence Peters, Ft. Worth, Texas;
James Peters, Grand Prairie, Texas;

Three Brothers; Two Sisters;

Twenty-seven Grandchildren; Forty-eight Great-Grandchildren;

Five Great-Great-Grandchildren;

Numerous other relatives and friends.

ONE DAY AT A TIME

“One day at a time - this our portion -
Sufficient each step of the way
Is the grace of God in His mercy,
Who giveth us strength for our day.

And when our journey grows weary
And much of life's day seems in vain,
From His exceeding abundance
He giveth - and giveth again.

Tomorrow's grace is not ours today,
Nor from it may we borrow?
But plenteous is His bountiful store
As we face each new tomorrow.”
