Obituary

Mrs. Louise K. Whitney was born in Charleston, South Carolina, March 19, 1906. She departed this life June 10, 1967.

Mrs. Whitney was the daughter of the late Alice Kidd and Arthur R. Whitney. She was a loyal and faithful member of of Centenary Methodist Church all of her life.

Surviving are her husband, Eugene H. Whitney; one daughter, A. Lauretta Whitney (Washington, D. C.); two sons, Clayton E. and Arthur H. Whitney (Los Angeles, California and Charleston, South Carolina, respectively); one sister, Mrs. Etta W. Clark; five brothers: Richard N., Purroy T., James H., Horace G. and John K. Whitney; two daughters-in-law, four grandchildren and a host of relatives and friends.

*When all is done and my last word is said,
And ye who loved me murmur, "She is dead;"
Let no one weep, for fear that I should know
And sorrow, too, that ye should sorrow so.*

*When all is done, say not my day is o'er,
And that thro' night I see a dimmer shore;
Say rather that my morn has just begun,
I greet the dawn and not a setting sun.*
