When I Must Leave You

*When I must leave you for a little while,
Please do not grieve and shed wild tears
And hug your sorrow to you through the years,
But start out bravely with a gallant smile;
And for my sake and in my name
Live on and do all things the same,
Feed not your loneliness on empty days.
But fill each waking hour in useful ways,
Reach out your hand in comfort and in cheer
And I in turn will comfort you and hold you near;
And never, never be afraid to die,
For I am waiting for you in the sky!*

Thy Will Be Done

God did not promise sun without rain,
Light without darkness or joy without pain.
He only promised strength for the day
When the darkness comes and we lose our way.
For only through sorrow do we grow more aware
That God is our refuge in times of despair,
For when we are happy ad life's bright and fair,
we often forget to kneel down in prayer.
But God seems much closer and needed much more
When trouble and sorrow stand outside our door,
For then we seek shelter in His wondrous love,
And we ask Him to send us help from above.
And that is the reason we know it is true
That bright, shining hours and dark, sad ones too
Are part of the plan God made for each one,
And all we can pray is "Thy will be done."
So know that you are never alone
For God is your Father and you're one of His own.
