Obituary

"The Lord is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear? The Lord is the strength of my life, of whom shall I be afraid?"

Psalm 27:1

Gabriel Lucious Bell, a son of the late James Bell and Mrs. Emma Dixon Bell, was born September 15, 1905 in St. Matthews, South Carolina. He departed this life September 3, 1991 at the Calhoun Convalescent Center of St. Matthews after an extended illness.

Having been brought up in a Christian home, and a religious environment, he became a Christian at an early age. He was a member of Mt. Zion United Methodist Church in Jamison, South Carolina. He worked many years in St. Matthews as a farmer. In later years he moved to North Charleston and became a member of Abyssinia Baptist Church and during his stay he retired as a construction worker in North Charleston.

He was united in holy wedlock to Pearlue Pue and to this union twelve children were born. Five of them have preceded him in death.

Survivors include: a devoted wife, Mrs. Pearlue Pue Bell of St. Matthews; six daughters, Mrs. Ollie Bonnette of Bronx, New York, Mrs. Carolyn Guinyard of St. Matthews, Mrs. Pearlue Footman, Mrs. Martha Watson and Mrs. Betty Glivens all of Cameron, South Carolina, Mrs. Julia Ervin of North Charleston; one son, William Bell of Bronx, New York; a devoted niece and nephew, Bernice and Willie Jamison of North Charleston, South Carolina; thirty-three grandchildren; forty great grandchildren; two daughters-in-law; six sons-in-law; nieces, nephews, cousins, and other relatives and friends.

*We are all God's Children
From the morning hour of birth.
He lets us live and laugh and love
And have our days on earth.
He guards us through the afternoon
Till sunset's rays are cast,
Then one by one, with gentle words
He calls us home at last.*
