

John Henry Bradberry, born December 13, 1919 to Grant and Lula Bradberry of Batesville, Mississippi. He accepted Christ at an early age and grew in his faith as a member of St. Luke Missionary Baptist Church. There he served on the Hopkin Club Auxiliary. He remained a faithful servant until he departed his life. He leaves to mourn and cherish a loving and devoted wife, Susie Bradberry; two daughters, Emma Jean Brown, Bonnistein Bradberry of Memphis, Tennessee; one son, Edward Lee Gray of California; two sons-in-law, Stairvester Brown and Thomas Carroll of Memphis; one daughter-in-law, Valai Gray of California; three grandchildren, Anthony Bradberry, Gregory Brown and Rhonda Brown; four great-grandchildren, Danielle, Ashley, Rickie and Brandon Bradberry; one sister-in-law, Annie Mae Bradberry, a devoted niece who helped care for him, Annie Blake, a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

*God has not promised skies always blue, Flower - strewn pathways all our lives through.
God has not promised sun without rain, joy without sorrow, peace without pain.
But God has promised strength for the day,
Rest for the laborer, light for the way, grace for the trials,
Help from above, unfailing sympathy, undying love.*

From your loving and devoted niece, Annie Blake

Acknowledgement

When it seemed that our loss was too great to bear, we looked up and our friends were there. With flowers and words written and with faces smiling and hearts open. Our gratitude cannot be adequately expressed with mere words. But the best that we can say is "Thank You" for lifting the clouds and letting the sun shine through.

*Thou will show me
the path of life
In thy presence is the full house of joy
At thy hand there are pleasure forever
