

Appreciation

The family acknowledges the many acts of kindness during the passing of Brother Charlie Ingram; also the cards of condolences, telegrams, and floral tributes at this time.

For everything we are deeply grateful.

Interment: Fairfield Baptist Cemetery
Fairfield, Texas
Capps Funeral Directors

OBSEQUIES

Of

BROTHER CHARLIE INGRAM

Died. November 3, 1959

Services at 2 P. M. Sunday, November 8, 1959

Fairfield Baptist Church

Fairfield, Texas

Rev. L. J. McIlveen, Pastor

"God is our refuge and strength,
a very present help in trouble."

—Psalms 46:1.

The Obituary

Brother Charlie Ingram was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Eli Ingram. He was born in Freestone County, Texas, on December 24, 1880. Died at his home on November 3, 1959.

Program

Processional.

Song: "Near The Cross."

Scripture: Rev. D. W. Houston.

Prayer: Rev. E. H. Blair.

Song: "In The Sweet Bye And Bye."

Resolutions.

Acknowledgement of condolences and telegrams.

Remarks.

Obituary: Sister Matilda Davis.

Eulogy: Rev. A. D. Duncan.

Viewing remains.

Recessional.