Obituary

Thaddeus Davis Jr. was born August 24, 1954 in North Charleston, SC. He was the oldest son of the late Thaddeus Davis Sr. and Delores A. Davis. He departed this life on Monday, September 17, 2012 at his residence.

Thaddeus was educated in the Charleston County School District. He was employed at The Citadel until his demise. He was a hard and dedicated worker and was very well liked by his coworkers.

Thaddeus accepted Christ at an early age and attended the Abyssinia Baptist Church on Nesbitt Avenue. He attended several churches before joining Providence AME Church of North Charleston where he served on the Usher Board. He was dedicated and serious about serving in his church. He also rendered other services in the church when needed.

Thaddeus enjoyed visiting his former neighborhood of Liberty Hill and was well known. He loved going up on the hill and enjoyed talking to his many friends. He worked diligently with the elders in the neighborhood. A part of his ministry was serving the elderly. Thaddeus also had much love and concern for his family, and he especially loved the little ones. Thaddeus will be dearly missed by his family, friends and church family.

His loving memories will always be cherished by his son, Mr. Tracey Campbell, one grandson, Trashawn Campbell, four brothers, Gary, Jeffrey, and Glenn Davis all of Charleston, SC and Todd (Jeralie) Davis of Goldsboro, NC, and three sisters, Acquanetta Hartley of Queens, NY, Zalleen Davis of Charleston, SC and Ms. Octavia (Darryl) Houston of Tampa, Fl., one sister-in-law, Leslie Davis of Charleston, SC and one brother who preceded him in death, Raymond L. Davis. Two aunts, Lala Bea (Rev. Leroy) Fyall of North Charleston, and Jackie Davis of Houston, TX., and a host of nephews, nieces, and other relatives and friends.

To My Sister Lillian

~The Master Called~

I'm sorry I had to leave you and my loved ones, oh so dear. But you see, the Master called me, His voice was very clear! I had made my reservation; a heaven bound ticket for one, and I knew that he would call me when he felt my work was done. I know that your hearts are heavy because I have gone away, but when the Master called me I knew that I could not stay. Yes, I'm sorry I had to leave you, and my loved ones, oh so dear. But you see, the Master called me and now I'm resting here.

Yes, I've crossed on over to glory and to you all I say; just stay in the hands of Jesus and we'll meet again someday.

~In Appreciation~

The loss of our loved one is a very painful and difficult experience for us. Your presence, telephone calls, cards, flowers, visits and other gestures of love and concern will always remain monumental in our hearts. We thank God for you and pray his blessings upon each and every one of you.
