~ Zealous: pioneered 7 years with 3 small children in Mississippi, often walking to share her hope of everlasting life with other; began regular pioneering in 1981, with her daughter, Queen. During this time, she met Sally Wilson and family, whom she welcomed as family. She enjoyed many memorable times with them.; continued to pioneer until 1997, until she had a stroke that left her severely handicapped in a wheelchair. Despite this obstacle she continued to serve Jehovah, and help others, with a positive attitude! She was very encouraging to all she met!
