OBITUARY

Mrs. Fannie Keeton was born to Mr. and Mrs. Henry Titus in Freestone County, Fairfield, Texas. She was the second child of a family of fifteen. While in the youthful days of her life, she attended public schools of Freestone County and Wiley College of Marshall, Texas. Early in this part of her life, like other members of this family, she accepted Christ.

She was married to Noah Keeton in 1911. To this union one daughter was born who preceded her in death. This union lasted until her passing May 31, at 1:50 A. M.

She served in her church and community the best she could until health failed her. She was superintendent of Sunday School for a number of years, Sunday School teacher and she served as pianist the best she could. She was a regular attendant of the Annual Conference for a number of years. She was a teacher in the Public Schools for a short while.

During her illness she remained pleasant, not questioning God but striving to meet Him.

She is survived by a devoted husband, a faithful sister-in-law, Mrs. Cora Burns; three sisters: Mrs. Mattie Edwards, Santa Marie, Calif.; Mrs. Arah Sneed, Teague, Texas; Mrs. Ruby Rischer, Streetman, Texas; five brothers: King Henry Titus, Los Angeles, Calif.; Rev. Phyleman Titus, Houston, Texas; Randolph Titus, Fairfield, Texas; Alvin Titus, Oakland, Calif.; Fynas Titus, Jasper, Texas; and a host of nieces and nephews, other relatives and friends.
