The Obituary

RUTH EADY FEASTER SMITH, the beloved daughter of Sallie Haynes and Herbert Stephens, was born October 7, 1930 in Charleston, South Carolina.

She was educated in the public schools of Charleston. She was united in holy wedlock to Edward T. Feaster, who preceded her in death.

She was given the right hand of fellowship at Shiloh A.M.E. Church in North Charleston, South Carolina. Later, she married John Smith; from that point on, she diligently continued to do the work of the Lord. Through her evangelism, she touched many lives, including the female inmates at the Charleston County jail. She was a faithful member of the Mothers' Board, and the World Evangelistic House Of God Church.

On Monday morning, June 21, 1993, God called her home.

At her passing, she leaves to mourn: her husband, John Smith; ten children—Ronald Feaster, Paulette Feaster, Ellen Smalls, Edward Feaster, Rudolph (Miyoshi) Feaster, New York, New York, Larna (Kim) Washington, Mark (Debra) Feaster, Rodney Feaster, (Gaynell Feaster, who preceded her in death), and Angel Feaster; sisters—Fredricka (Carmello) Ropa, Brownmills, New York, and Deborah (John) Foreman, Jacksonville, Florida; brothers—Camel (Ida) Eady, Rosedale, New York, Vernon (Lelia) Haynes, Cambria Heights, New York, Cleveland (Mary) Haynes, Hempstead, New York, Joseph Haynes and Sango Kayodele, both of Charleston, South Carolina, and Alonzo Haynes, Boston Massachusetts; aunts—Bertha Hansley, Alma Jackson, Eloise H. Eady, and Eloise Eady; fourteen grandchildren, eight great-grandchildren, sisters-in-law—Thomasina Ray, Lillie V. Blair, and Sophronia Feaster; brothers-in-law—Major Feaster and Alfred Feaster; a special adopted sister, Gloria Hughes; cousins, a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

Come Home

God looked around His garden
And saw an empty space,
He then looked down from heaven
And saw your tired face;
He put His arms around you
And whispered, . . . "Come and rest."
His garden must be beautiful
For He only takes the best.

Footprints

One night, a man had a dream;

*He dreamed he was walking along the beach
with the Lord . . .*

Across the sky flashed scenes from his life.

For each scene he noticed two sets of footprints in the sand: one belonging to him and the other to the Lord.

When the last scene of his life flashed before him,

He looked back at the footprints in the sand.

He noticed that many times along the path of his life

There was only one set of footprints.

He also noticed that it happened at the very lowest and saddest times in his life.

This really bothered him and he questioned the Lord about it; "Lord, you said that once I decided to follow you,

you'd walk with me all the way

But I have noticed that during the most troublesome times in life, there is only one set of footprints.

*I don't understand why, when I needed you most,
you would leave me."*

*The Lord replied, "My Son, My Precious child,
I love you and I would never leave you.*

During your times of trials and suffering,

When you see only one set of footprints.

It was then that I carried you."
