"My Last Journey"

I've taken a journey that we all must take. I had already made preparation, but I had to endure the wait.

I heard the Master's call, I saw Him reach out His hand. I wanted so badly to say goo-bye, but as we know time waits for no man.

I loved you all as you must know. I tried to leave a impact on as many lives as I could before it was my time to go.

Bind together as a family, hold on to each other to be strong.

And realized that god loves you, and He does no wrong. I've traveled the way less traveled by few. Now that I'm gone what will you do? You will carry on.

Don't cry too much for me and please don't be sad for I've gone to live with Jesus and surely that should make you glad.
