OBITUARY

MRS. EDITH WESTBROOK was born in Memphis, Tennessee August 13, 1945 to Mr. Edmond Gibson, Sr. and the late Mrs. Katherine Gibson.

She confessed a hope in Christ at an early age at Gospel Temple Church. She was a graduate of Manassas High School and later attended Shelby State College.

She leaves to mourn her passing 4 sons, Iran, Renwick, Richard and Rashawd, she was a devoted daughter of Mrs. Edmond Gibson Sr.; sister of Calvin, Curtis, Michael, and Edmond Gibson, Jr. and Mrs. Sarah Stennis, all of Memphis, Mrs. Emma Jones and Mrs. Mattie Pearl Gentry, both of San Francisco, Calif.; she leaves 3 uncles, 4 aunts, 19 nieces and nephews, 3 brothers-in-law, 3 sister-in-laws, and a host of other relatives and friends to mourn her passing.

There are days when the sun is behind a cloud,
And the world seems to lose its glow.
Times when the flame of our joy in life
Is flickering and burning low.

And then our need is to find the way
To renew through faith and prayer,
The sense of our father's unfailing love,
In the thought that He's always there.

Because I could not stop for death,
He kindly stopped for me;
The carriage held but just ourselves
And immortality.

We slowly drove, he knew no haste,
And I had put away
My labor and my leisure too,
For his civility.
