The Obituary

Sarah Ellen Dorman Dennis, the second youngest of fifteen children born to the late Warren and Nora Tull Dorman was born March 4, 1919, in Allen, Maryland. She departed this life on Monday, October 10, 2005, at the Salisbury Rehab and Nursing Center in Salisbury, Maryland.

She received her formal education in the public schools of Wicomico County and graduated from the former Salisbury Colored High School in May 1937. She went on work for the Wicomico County School System as a substitute teacher and later as Teacher's Aide until her retirement.

Sarah was united in holy matrimony to Edgar Nathaniel Dennis on September 14, 1939. They shared a marriage of love, devotion, and affection for fifty-seven years. He preceded her in death on March 1, 1997.

Sarah was a life long member of the Friendship United Methodist Church, in Allen, Maryland and always enjoyed attending her home church and participating in church activities.

Sarah always liked nice things and took pride in the way she dressed and the way her house looked. She always welcomed you into her home. She was loved and cherished by all who knew her and her memories will be cherished in their hearts forever.

She will be sorrowfully missed by her daughter Connie Dennis Andrews and her husband, Aaron Andrews, Woodbridge, VA; a granddaughter, Captain Raven Andrews Thompson and her husband, Captain Anthony Thompson Woodbridge, VA ; a grandson, Aaron Andrews II, Woodbridge, VA; 2 great-granddaughters, Alyssa Andrews and Alexis Thompson; a devoted niece Helena Williams, six sisters-in-law; Annie Jones, Gwendolyn Dennis, Mary Dennis, and Maggie Dorman of Allen, MD, Winifred Logan, Philadelphia, PA and , Loistine Dennis, Cambridge, MD; four brothers-in law: Vincent Carter, Allen MD, Carroll Dennis, Philadelphia, PA, Alfred Dennis and Elmer Voyd Dennis, both of Allen, MD; and several nieces, nephews and a host of other relatives, extended family and friends.

*And now we leave her, with her peace,
Her rest so well deserved,
Safe in the arms of God, her friend,
With a place for her reserved.*

*We loved him very much, tis true,
And God did love her too,
We know how many helpful things
Her kind heart found to do.*

*But till we reach that happy home,
Where griefs are all consoled,
We'll never know the joy she's found.
Beyond the sunset gold*

Lovingly submitted
