Obituary

---

"Who can find a virtuous woman? For her price is far above rubies. Give her of the fruit of her hands; and let her own works praise her in the gates.

Proverbs 31:10, 31

Our beloved mother, Minnest Estella Cox Brown, was born January 22, 1927 in Batesville, Mississippi to the parentage of Rev. Mitchell Cox and Mishelle Killebrew Cox.

She received Christ at an early age and joined the Second Concord Missionary Baptist Church under the leadership of Rev. Mitchell Cox. Through the years she became involved in various auxiliaries and remained a faithful member.

She graduated from Oxford High School and Rust College. She worked as a nurse assistant for several years in Memphis, Tennessee where she met and married Ennis Brown, Jr. To this union eleven children were born. Her husband and one son, William Earl Brown, both preceded her in death.

On Friday, October 5, 2001, the Lord called his child home.

She leaves to cherish her memories: four sons~ Carl (Debra) Brown, James Brown, and Willie Gene Brown, all of Batesville, Mississippi, and Tommy (Lashune) Brown of San Antonio, Texas; six daughters~ Mary (Glyn) Glover, Patricia (James) Barksdale, and Paullette (Joe) Johnson, all of Batesville, Mississippi; Mary (John) Banks and Tammie (Harry) Giles of Jackson, Mississippi, and Carolyn Hill of San Antonio, Texas; one stepson~ Willie L. Brown of Ecu, Mississippi; three brothers~ Lindsey Cox and Earl Q. Cox of Memphis, Tennessee, and Eugene Cox of Fredricksburg, Virginia; twenty two grandchildren; ten great-grandchildren; a special niece~ Rose M. Baldwin; a host of nieces, nephews, relatives and friends.

A woman of diligence, she was employed with Delta Hills later to become ICS Head Start. She retired after thirty years of faithful service. She also served in the community as an active member of the Willing Workers Club.
