OBITUARY

I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith: Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day: and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing.

II Timothy 4:7-8

Mr. Elijah Davis was born January 19, 1913, in Carroll County, Mississippi, to the late Mr. John Davis and Mrs. Ella Ellis Davis.

He confessed a hope in Christ at an early age and united with the Jeff Chapel C.M.E. Church. Upon moving to Vaiden, Mississippi, he united with the Haven Methodist Church which later became Haven United Methodist Church. He was a loyal and faithful member. He served as a Trustee for many years and was a Steward. He loved his church, his pastor and always showed concern for his fellowman. He was a member of Masonic Evergreen Lodge No. 205 where he held the position of treasurer for many years.

He attended Jeff Chapel School. He was a World War II Army Veteran. Upon his completion of military duty, he attended the Veterans' School in Greenwood, Mississippi.

He was united in Holy Matrimony to Miss Frances West.

Life came to a close on Thursday, September 30, 1993, at Tyler Holmes Memorial Hospital in Winona, Mississippi.

He leaves to cherish fond memories: a devoted wife, Mrs. Frances W. Davis, Vaiden, Mississippi; a son, Mr. Earnest [Geraldine] Davis, Chicago, Illinois; one brother, Mr. Sammie Hughes, Chicago, Illinois; a devoted sister-in-law, Mrs. Everlena Davis, Vaiden, Mississippi; a brother-in-law, Mr. Willie L. West, Vaiden, Mississippi; one god son, Mr. Cade Davis, Vaiden, Mississippi; two god daughters, Mrs. Katie R. Sago, Chicago, Illinois; and Mrs. Betty McGee, Vaiden, Mississippi; one grandson, nephews, nieces, other relatives and friends.
