OBITUARY

Benjamin Norris Cooke was born August 12, 1957 to Margaret and the late Benjamin Cooke of Memphis, Tennessee. After graduating from Northside High School in 1975, he attended the University of Tennessee at Knoxville. Later, he attended Shelby State Community College with a major in Business Management.

He was a member of the Church of Christ; and worshipped with the congregation at Vance Avenue. One of his favorite songs was "We're Lookin For A Savior".

He passed from this life August 29, 1981.

Ben is survived by his mother, Margaret; two brothers, Stanley and Wayne Cooke; three sisters, Mrs. Bonnie Johnson, Patricia and Margaret Cooke; one brother-in-law, Micheal Johnson, all of Memphis; his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Wallace of Batesville, Mississippi; a very dear friend, Kelly Morris; ten aunts, ten uncles, one numerous amount of cousins and friends.

WE'RE LOOKING FOR A SAVIOR

*This earth rumbles on in a sad, sad condition
Oh it's full of war, poverty and sin.
But one day someone will change it's condition.
Oh, and the church will be triumphant once again.*

*Now this earth below has many great men.
But there's still some things that they can not do.
Oh Lord send us someone from heaven.
Oh Lord we need a savior, a savior like you.*

*We're looking for a mighty good savior.
Yes, we're looking for a wonderful friend,
We're searching high and low for a savior.
He will help us to endure life till he comes again.*
