In Appreciation

The family of the deceased
-Mr. Solomon "Bully" Givens, Sr.-
Wishes to acknowledge and thank you for all your kind wishes in this time of bereavement. May God bless you.

Dearest Grandfather

You were the one to set down the law.
You made us all wipe our feet at the door.
We will forever remember you sneaking in the pot.
And making us remember who was the leader of this lot.
You gave us a legacy to carry on with in life.
You are on a journey now to rejoin your beloved wife.
We know you will join loved ones in heaven from the past.
When you met with your maker, He gave you life ever last.
One thing we know for sure, yes indeed,
Solomon Givens, Sr.'s soul was set FREE!

Obituary

Everything that happens in this world happens the time God chooses.

He Set The Time For Birth: Mr. Solomon "Bully" Givens, Sr., the son of Sam Givens and Anna Givens, was born April 15, 1914.

What Do We Gain From All Our Work: He received his education on John's Island, SC. He was employed at the Naval Shipyard for over thirty years.

A Time to Render: He became a member of St. Matthew AME Church at an early age. He was a faithful leader until his health failed him.

A Time to Embrace Love: He was joined in Holy Matrimony to Viola L. Brown on September 6, 1936.

A Time to Plant: To this union 10 children were born.

Those that are left to enjoy the memories of all he did to make their lives brighter include: his son, Irving, Sr.; daughters, Anna and Mary Givens; two daughters-in-law, Betty and Shirley Givens; twelve grandchildren, Cynthia, Audra, Michael, Roshron, Reginald, Andre, Tameika, MarKeith, Sr., Shavonne, Adrienne, Irving, Jr., and Brittney; nine great-grandchildren, Laneisha, Ane'gela, Brianna, Ashanti, Devin, Timothy, Jr., MarKeith, Jr., Tiera and Desirae; four great great-grandchildren, Cylania, Larrynz, Nya and Jaquanzee; a special niece, Betty D. McKinley and a host of relatives and friends.
