Obituary

Alethia Dean Morton, the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. William George and Ellen Tate Dean, was born April 25, 1917 in Charleston, South Carolina. She departed this life on Wednesday, September 9, 1992 at the Medical University of South Carolina. She received her education in the public schools of Charleston, South Carolina.

In 1943, she was united in holy matrimony to the late Mr. Fred Morton and to that union eleven children were born. Having three to precede her in death.

She was affiliated with the Greater New Zion I A.M.E. Church.

She leaves to cherish her memories: her loving children; four sons, William, George, Walter, and Rickey Morton; daughters, Fredericka Morton Johnson, Marlene Morton, Lenora Morton Nelson, and Althia Morton Rollerson; three daughters-in-law; three sons-in-law; thirty-two grandchildren; seventeen great-great grandchildren and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends.

Mama we all will miss you.

Mama, you were the best mother that any child could have ever hoped for. You were always there for us. We know that every day was not easy for you.

God really blessed you Mama, and you served him faithfully.

We love you mama, and we didn't want to see you leave, but God loved you best. He takes only what belongs to him.

Mama we will cherish your memories forever. Rest in peace. And I know you're in peace with God.
