The Obituary

Louise Middleton came into this world on May 28, 1927 on Wadmalaw Island, South Carolina as the sixth of eight children born to the late William and Carrie Middleton. She was educated at Nine Mile Fork Elementary School on Wadmalaw Island and Burke High School in Charleston.

Following high school "Lou" moved to Harlem, New York where she worked in the garment industry. While in New York she met and married Reuben James of Kingston, Jamaica in 1954. In 1989 she re-located back to Wadmalaw Island where she resided on Birdnest Road until her passing at the John's Island Rehabilitation and Nursing Home on Saturday, August 6, 2016.

Louise was a dedicated member of St. Matthew A.M.E. Church on John's Island where her wit and wisdom were much appreciated by her pastor, Rev. Samuel D. Johnson, Sr. as well as her family.

She leaves to mourn her passing, her sisters Maybell Wesley and Esther Francis; her sister-in-law Ruthie Mae Middleton; her nieces, nephews, grand-nieces, grand-nephews and a host of other relatives and friends.
