Attention is invited to the decision of Hon Asst Secy Reynolds, dated Jan'y 18 1897, in the claim No 467.120 of father of Eli Campbell, Co H. 5th U. S. Col'd Arty, in which he uses the following words: "However such a marriage, although absolutely void, might afterward be confirmed, which confirmation might result in practically dating the marriage back to its inception, so far as certain rights are concerned. (Steward in Mar^y & Div. Secs 74.100 to 157.)"

In the Campbell case it appears that the mother of the soldier died prior to the death of the soldier, ^{and} both mother ^{and} soldier died prior to Dec 1865
