Loving Memories

Your gentle face and patient smile, With sadness we recall;

You had a kindly word for each, And died beloved of all.

The voice is mute and stilled the heart, That loved us well and true;

Ah, bitter was the trial to part, From one so good as you.

You are not forgotten loved one, Nor will you ever be;

As long as life and memory last, We will remember thee.

We miss you now, our hearts are sore, As time goes by, we miss you more;

Your loving smile, your gentle face, No one can fill your vacant place.

When I Must Leave You

When I must leave you for a little while, Please do not grieve and shed wild tears
And hug your sorrow to you through the years. But start out bravely with a gallant smile;
And for my sake and in my name Live on and do all things the same.
Feed not your loneliness on empty days, But fill each waking hour in useful ways.
Reach out your hand in comfort and in cheer And I in turn will comfort you and hold you near;
And never, never be afraid to die, For I am waiting for you in the sky!
