Obituary

Mrs. Gertrude Bouges Turner, daughter of the late Burie Bouges and Louise Hiott Bouges, was born on September 13, 1917 in Round O, South Carolina. She departed this life on Tuesday, July 11, 2000, at 10:55 PM in the Roper Hospital Charleston, South Carolina.

She confessed Christ and joined Galilee Baptist Church at an early age. Mrs. Turner got joy out of talking and telling others what the Lord had done for her.

She was the faithful and loving wife of the late James Turner, whom she met in Brooklyn, New York and was joined together in holy matrimony. They shared a wonderful life together.

When Mrs. Turner left to go to the hospital, she was not concerned about coming back home. She was peaceful and ready to go on.

She leaves to cherish her memories: two stepsons, Harold Turner of Atlanta, Georgia and Irving Turner of Pennsylvania; two granddaughters, Celeste and Shari; four grandsons, André, Irving, Jr., Samuel and Montoga; ten great-grandchildren; one loving and special niece, Peggy Nelson (Forrest) of Round O; six nephews, Sylvester Magwood (Mozella) of Charleston, South Carolina, James Robert Magwood (Judy) of Charleston, South Carolina, Carl Magwood of New York, Victor Magwood (Marian) of Alaska, Benjamin Magwood (Joni), of Hazel Green, Alabama and Arnold Magwood (Sabrina) of Huntsville, Alabama; two sisters-in-law, Gladys Harper (Kaleb) of Charleston, South Carolina, and Jaminia Magood, Charleston, South Carolina; four cousins, Lory Adams (Joe Lee), Round O, South Carolina, Dorothy Kennedy, Walterboro, South Carolina, Elizabeth Moore and Jacqueline Oneal, both Virginia and a host of other relatives and friends.

Safely Home

*I am home in Heaven, dear ones; oh, so happy and so bright!
There is perfect joy and beauty in this everlasting light.
All the pain and grief is over, every restless tossing passed;
I am now at peace forever, safely home in Heaven at last.
Did you wonder why I so calmly trod the valley of the shade?
Oh! but Jesus' love illuminated every dark and fearful glade.
And He came Himself to meet me in that way so hard to tread;
And with Jesus' arm to lean on could I have one doubt or dread?
Then you must not grieve sorely, for I love you dearly still;
Try to look beyond earth's shadows, pray to trust not idly stand;
Do it now, while life remaineth you shall rest in Jesus' land.
When that work is all completed, He will gently call you home;
Oh, the rapture of that meeting, oh, the joy to see you come!*
