But if you must do something then I have one last request
Forgive me for the wrongs I've done and with the love that's left
Thank God for my soul's resting. Thank God for all who loved me
Praise God who loved me best

Claudette's Obituary

Unto everything there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven. Ecclesiastes 5:1

A TIME TO BE BORN

Ms. Claudette J. Kimmons was born on August 5, 1950 to the late Mr. Audley Jones and Mrs. Everlee Morris Jones in Panola County (Sardis) Mississippi.

A TIME TO PLANT

Having been brought up in a Christian home, Claudette accepted Jesus Christ as her personal savior and joined the McIvor Creek Baptist Church at an early age under the leadership of Rev. T.L. Tipton.

Claudette graduated in 1969 from the North Panola Vocational High School in Como, Mississippi.

Claudette's employment career began in 1971 at the Sardis Luggage Plant. She was employed there until 1974. Claudette later progressed to R&R Donnelly and Sons in Senatobia, Mississippi where she worked for 33 years. Afterwhich, she was employed at the University of Mississippi in Oxford. Special thanks to her co-workers who generously and unselfishly donated their vacation time, on her behalf, in order for her to retire in December, 2010.

Claudette was known for her beautiful black hair, always looking out of the corner of her eye and sipping on a diet coke. She enjoyed cooking and trying new recipes. Claudette was a gentle and soft spoken woman who touched many lives in numerous ways.

A TIME TO TRANSCEND

The Lord saw that one his servant's body was growing tired and her soul needed resting. So on Saturday, July 23, 2011 he called Claudette from her journey to home. She was preceded in death by sister Vemeda Jones Kirkwood.

A TIME TO REJOICE

Those left to rejoice in the promise of Eternal life are wonderful children: Kelvin (Michele) Kimmons and Katina Kimmons of Sardis; Five sisters: Ethel Lee Lamar, Bobbie Jean Irby, Leevern Wooley, Dorothy Faye Knox, and Peggy Ann (Earnest) Carton. Two brothers: Tommie (Mary) Jones and Robert Earl Jones. Three grandchildren: Aaron Kimmons, Delvin Kimmons, and Laila Kimmons; a host of neices, nephews, cousins and friends. Also, a special bond of friends at R&R Donnelly.
