

Daddy,

You are my rock and I know you are not far; you will always be near. You have stood beside me all the way and you will still stand beside me each and everyday.

Love,
Dorothy Lee "Dot"

I Love You, "PaPa"

I thought you were here to stay, but the Lord say
It's time to take you away on my Birthday.

Love, Tamyah Wines (Kookie)

Papa,

I don't know what to say the only thing, I can think of is you were borrowed not here to stay.

Love,
Keisha Wines (Kee)

Daddy,

I wish every child in this world could experience being loved and adored unconditionally by a grandfather like you.

I Love You,

Being There

Our calling is to be there when someone is in need.
To be there, no matter the time, or the conditions.
To be there with words of comfort and concern.
To be there to give quiet guidance through the storm.
To be there for the final tribute that honors a life.
There is no higher privilege.
Thank you for the privilege of serving you.

Precious Memories

Boykin Lee was born on October 17, 1917 in Fairfield, Texas to the late Robert and Clara Lee. He received his education in Freestone County. He committed his life to Christ at an early age. He later joined New Zion Baptist Church where he served as a faithful laborer until his health failed.

Boykin "PaPa" Lee departed this life on August 30, 2009 in Fairfield, Texas. He worked for a number of years and later retired from Sanger Harris and Levitz in Dallas. He also worked as a volunteer van driver for senior citizens at the Fairfield Civic Center.

In his latter years, Papa was a tireless farm worker. He was not the type of person to sit still for long. He kept himself occupied by taking on numerous responsibilities and tasks. Boykin was always willing to help others in need.

His parents, Robert and Clara Lee, along with eight brothers and sisters and one son James David Carter, preceded him in death.

He leaves to cherish his memories:

His Wife of 36 Years: Ella Mae Lee of Fairfield, Texas;

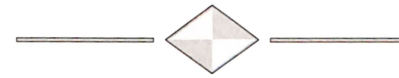

One Loving Daughter: Dorothy Lee;

His Three Sons: Clinton Moody and wife Kathy; Lonnie Moody and his wife Denise; and Chester Moody;

Nine Grandchildren: Keisha Wines and husband, Terrence; Sherrie London and her husband, Rodrick; Edwin High, Jr.; James Moody and his wife, Debra; Yolanda and her husband, Ross; Tonya Nicholas and her husband, Larry; Reggie Moody and his wife Tiffany; Chester Moody, Jr., all of Dallas, Texas;

Fourteen great grandchildren, one goddaughter, Megan Moultria, a host of nephews, nieces and other loving relatives, church members and friends.

Psalm 23

The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures;
He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul; He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for thou art with me;
thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies; thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.
